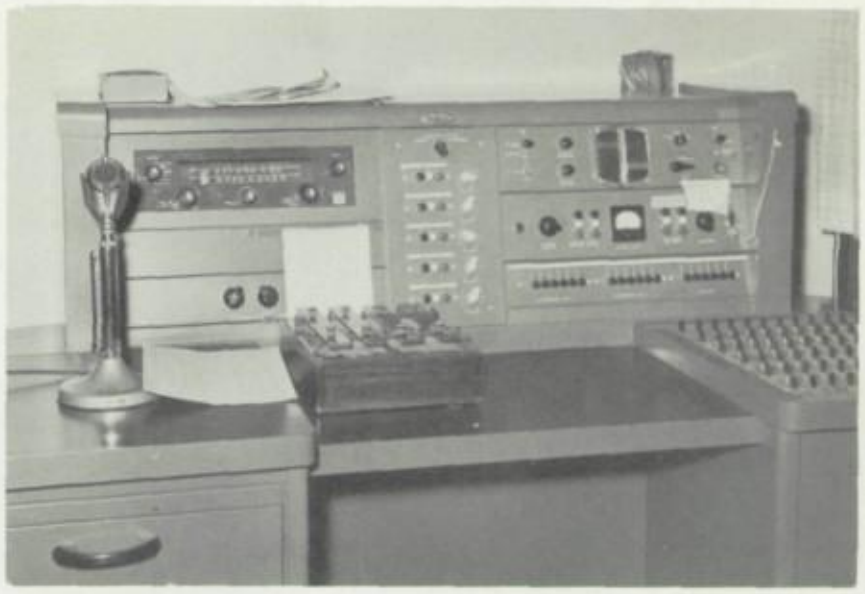
1962 MAGICAL MAJORETTES

MAGICAL MAJORETTES HIGH SCHOOL
145 WEST PARK BLVD.
MANSFIELD, OHIO

Whether you stepped alertly or stumbled drowsily toward the front door, your reflection from the glass windows returned your attitudes. As you pushed your image aside, you opened the door to the adventure of another school day.



The regiment of keys were removed from their rests and released the buildings countless doorways. The public address amplified the announcements of the day, and offices, classrooms, and hallways were soon alive with activity.

A doorway to study and scholastic achievement.

Everyday both trophy-winning athletes and arm-chair athletes enter our Pete Henry Gym to enjoy the spirit of competition and fair play.

Our Annex doors, open to musical talent.

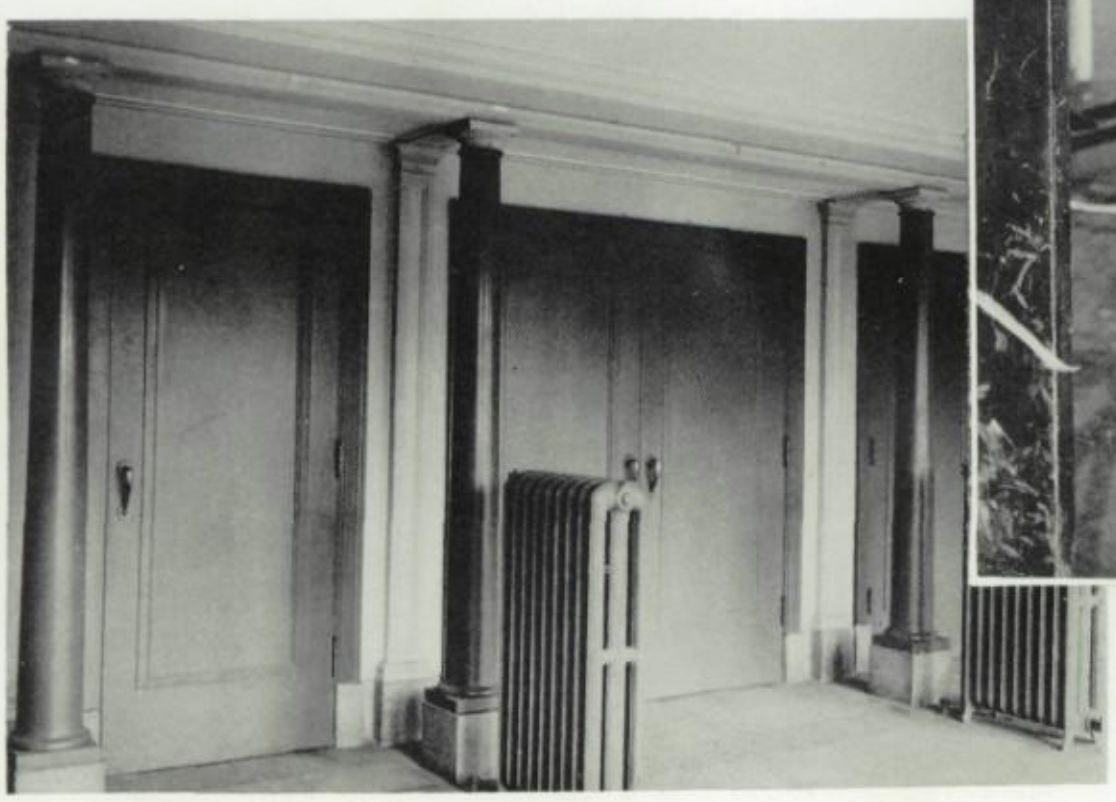
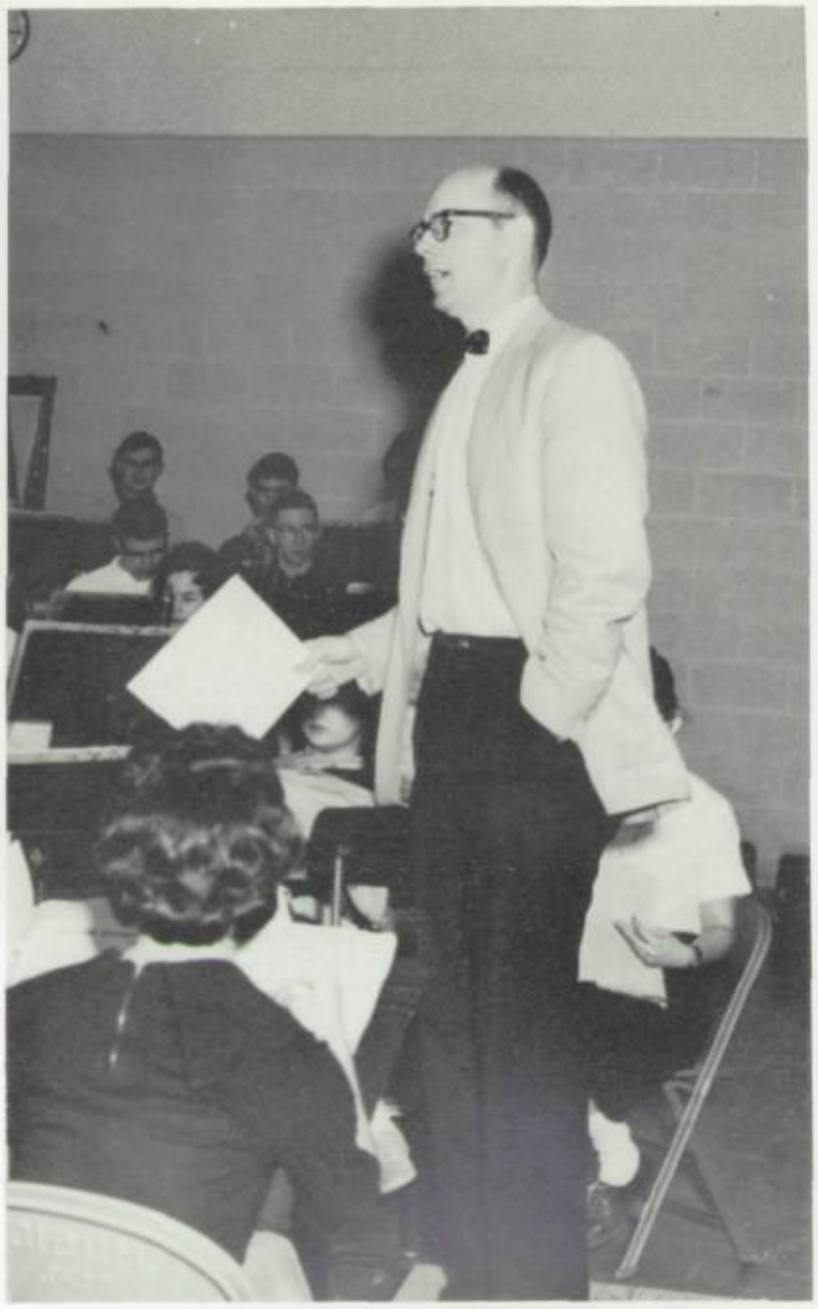
At this door the back stage excitement and the anxiously beating heart is in every performer who waits to enter.

Through these doors the anticipating, but calm audience enters.



WE DEDICATE TO YOU . . .

MR. PERCY F. HALL



We dedicate the 1962 Manhigan to Mr. Percy F. Hall, the director of Varsity Band and Orchestra. Mr. Hall's vibrant personality, contagious smile, and friendly manner have made him one of the best-liked and most-appreciated teachers at Senior High.

These appreciated marchers, presenting powerful and fresh routines each week, made our football games all the more enjoyable. LEND US AN EAR

Mr. Hall and the spirit jug go well together.

During concerts, pep assemblies, or on the field, our Varsity Band was always on the beat with sounds of repeated quality.

Many aspects of the Sophomore Band are reflected when the light catches in their brass instruments. Whether it is the sunlight reflected while they practice or the stadium lights at Arlin Field, they are getting experience and training to achieve the precision and skill that characterizes a top-flight varsity band. This year they made their first half-time debut at the Homecoming game.

SWEET SYMPHONY

If you have gone into the Annex during second period, you might have heard the magnificent sounds of "Exodus" or those of other thrilling classics or popular music. Mansfield Senior High is represented by a very fine and versatile orchestra under the direction of Mr. Percy F. Hall. President Jim Million, Vice-President Ellen Garrison, Secretary Clarissa May, and Treasurer Bob Remmer were the officers this year.

A moment that is remembered every year is that feeling of elation when the "Hallelujah Chorus" fills the auditorium at Christmas. This is one of the many ventures of the choirs and the various ensembles during the year. As do the other music divisions, they receive top rating at the contests and festivals in which they participate. The vocal groups are under the expert direction of Mr. A. LeMoine Derr. These were the officers: Rick Petersen, president; Kathy Furey, secretary; Barb Sharp, assistant secretary; Virginia Davison, librarian. Mary Lou Beilstein and Marcia Millikin served as pianists this year.

Officers Phyllis Wilson, Judy Oxman, Kay Hartman, Jim Schroeder, and Mary Lou Beilstein make plans for a meeting

The Student Council Executive Committee set up and organized ideas for the next day's General Assembly meeting. These students worked diligently all year to aid in the activities of the school.

BY THE PEOPLE

The representatives on the Student Council should feel proud to have been members of such a worth-while organization. It not only sponsored school functions such as the candy cage and noon-time auditorium activities but also contributed to such community projects as the Christmas Baskets and the Citizens' Scholarship Fund.

Candy anyone?

Waste baskets were brought in and painted to aid in school cleanliness.

For convenience, candy was also sold in the auditorium.

Kay Hartman, Delivery Chairman, Phyllis Wilson, General Chairman, and their committees succeeded in distributing over one hundred Christmas Baskets this year.

AMERICAN FIELD SERVICE

Sally Huber, Chairman of American Field Service, is surrounded by the eager Executive Committee.

The American Field Service undertook the task of earning enough money to bring another foreign student to M.H.S. next fall and send a student abroad this summer. To do this they sold lovely school jewelry and practical folders.

This year at M.H.S. we were privileged to have three foreign students, all of whom were in the senior class. Both Loly Mostaza and Fernando Notti were here on the American Field Service Foreign Exchange Program. Shunji Mano, the International Christian Youth Exchange student, is the first to come to Mansfield on this program. Loly, a native of Madrid, Spain, lived with the Truman Clarks; Fernando hailed from Mendoza, Argentina, and spent his past year in the Albert Hartman home; and from far off Shimizu, Japan, came Shunji to become a member of the A. Clare Bell family. It was the honor of those who came in contact with these fine people to learn and share ideas and feelings of the youth from other parts of the world.

BOYS' STATE

This past summer, June 8-18, five boys from Mansfield Senior High School journeyed to Ohio University in Athens to attend the annual Buckeye Boys' State, sponsored by the American Legion. There the boys learned about state government by actually participating in the affairs.

GIRLS' STATE

Roxey Lombard was sent to Capital University in June, 17-25, to represent M.H.S. at Buckeye Girls' State. Sponsored by American Legion Auxiliary, Roxey not only learned an abundance of information about state government, but also met lifelong friends.

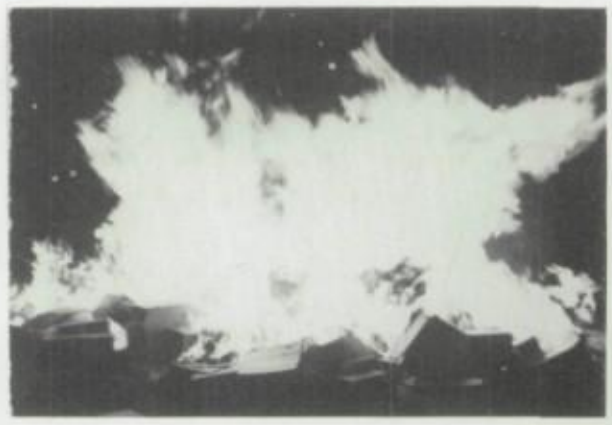
Go! - - - Go! - - - Go!



A blazing bonfire of enthusiasm!

The King of Spirit.

Nothing showed spirit and loyalty to our school more than a pep assembly with Coach Doolittle at the spirit jug.

"Lud" with the jug.

FIGHT !!!

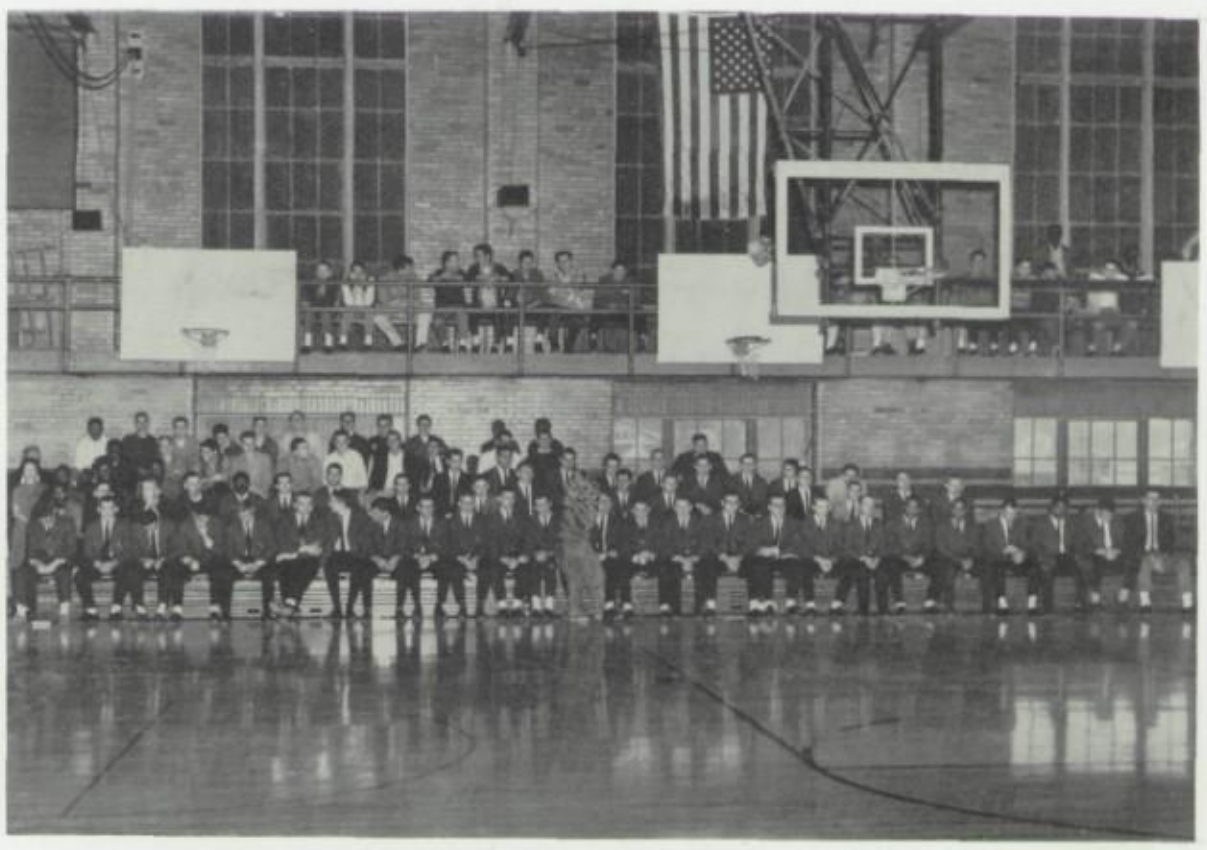
Basketball players are introduced.

Excited? Bursting with school pride? You must have just come from one of those pep assemblies for which M. H. S. is fast becoming famous.

The recipe is easy to prepare and when served before a game, very effective. To a gym full of students, add peppy cheerleaders, a tyger and a band. Mix a spirit jug with "Homer P. Clotz" Oberlin, and an enthusiastic coach. When well spiced with the lively "H. R. &D. Section", you have the spirit of M. H. S.

Love is shown for our tyger.

Our Tyger has a friend.



This power squadron will always reflect a powerful season.

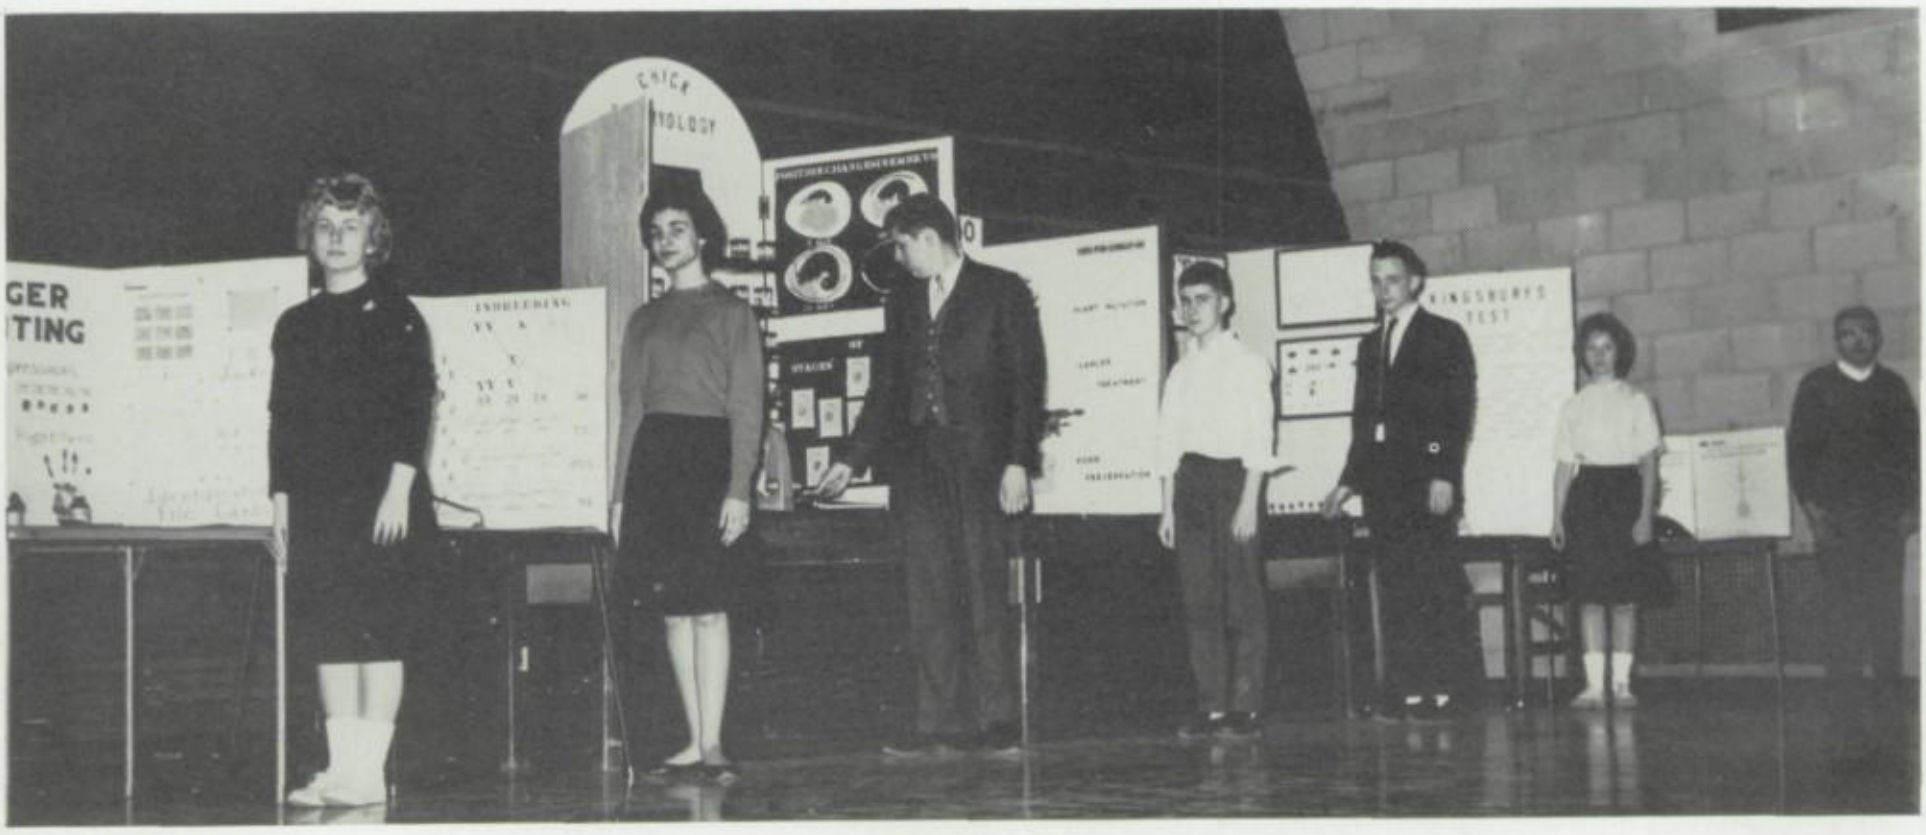
Every year the students of M. H. S. are given an opportunity to participate in the Science Fair. These students work for many hours to prepare their projects. The projects are then judged by teachers and other adults of various professions, and awards are given for the outstanding projects.



BUSINESS STAFFS

The Hyphonerian business staff, under the capable direction of Mr. Harold Ramsey, business advisor, and Judy Keyser, business manager, was in charge of the monthly selling and distribution of Hyphos. "Peddling papers" and balancing books were their chief functions.

Taking subscriptions for Manhigans, distributing the Ohio School Pictures to the underclassmen, paying the bills incurred in the production of the book, and finally supplying Manhigans to subscribers in May were the jobs of the Manhigan business staff. Mr. Charles Sauder served ably as advisor, and Marijane Kleer served efficiently as business manager.

OFFICE ASSISTANTS

Giving much valuable help in the Attendance, Counselors', Main Office, and in the library were these willing workers. Each student gave up a study hall in order to work. Because of their able assistance, staff offices ran more efficiently.

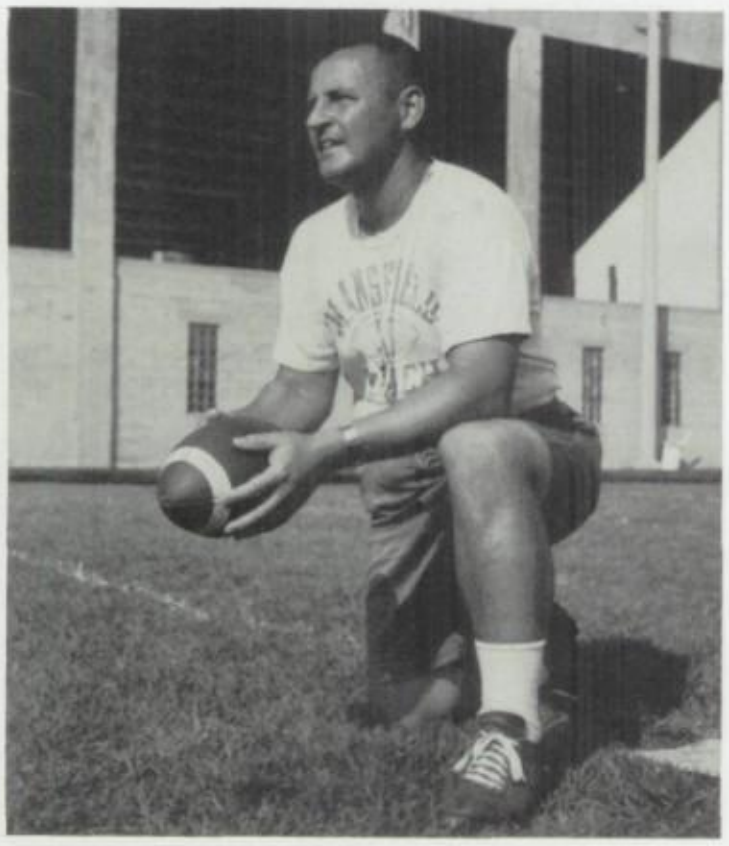
1961 TYGER COACHES



BILL DOOLITTLE
HEAD FOOTBALL COACH
ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Two years ago Bill Doolittle returned to Mansfield Senior High as athletic director and head football coach.

As captain and quarterback of the 1941 Tyger team, he led them to an undefeated season.

He won two letters as a quarterback at Ohio State, while under Buckeye coaches--Paul Brown, Paul Bixler, and Wes Fesler.

Following his Ohio State days, Doolittle spent two years as backfield coach at Brown University and was head football coach at Grandview Heights.

He spent the next season as backfield coach at Canton Lincoln. Then he was head coach at Owosso, Michigan. As head coach for six years at Flint (Mich.) Central, Doolittle won almost three times as many games as he lost. He had one unbeaten season and his 1958 team won the Michigan State championship.

Senior High lost a great coach this year to West Point. He gave the school a sense of fair play and sportsmanship, as well as much spirit. Coach Doolittle is now serving as backfield coach at the Academy.

BASKETBALL

VARSITY COACHES
JIM BURKETT AND VERN HOFFMAN

This year M.H.S. lost not only a great football coach but also one of the all time great basketball mentors in the business. The year 1961-62 marked the end of a very fine career for veteran coach Vern Hoffman. Coach Hoffman turned out many fine basketball teams, but few were better than the 1961-62 team. Now that Mr. Hoffman is Athletic Director, Jim Burkett will be taking over as head man for the bengal cagers. Next year as head coach, Burkett will have some fine boys coming up to take the place of the graduating seniors. He will have back two very fine boys in Jim Goode and Jim Carson, who were both starters this season.

This year the Mansfield Tyger basketball team had one of its most successful seasons, concluding the year with an 18-4 record. One of the most decisive victories was over arch-rival Ashland on the opponents' home court. Following the conquest of the Arrows, the Tygers had two tough tangles within a week. 50-47, but then the Tygers defeated Lima Central Catholic in a thrilling double overtime game. Two weeks later, Mansfield completely outclassed the Massillon Tigers. After losing to Elyria and beating Wooster, Jim Goode sank a 20-foot jump shot from the side to defeat Marion in a comeback victory. The finale for the regular season's schedule was against the Sandusky Blue Streaks. Don Rather, Sandusky star, wasn't enough to stop the Tygers, as the well-balanced Mansfield attack defeated Sandusky. In the tournaments, Mansfield edged Galion in its first game. Winning the sectional championship was easier than expected, as Madison bowed to the Tygers in this title tiff. The game with Tiffin was close all the way, but the Tygers won by five points. The final tournament game with St. Peters was the climax of a great season. Having fallen behind early in the game, the Tygers fought hard to keep the margin inside ten points. In the fourth quarter, John Heiser hit four jump shots in a row, cutting the lead to two points. However, that was as close as Mansfield came to the Spartans, as the Tygers dropped a 59-51 decision.

They placed third in the Worthington twelve-mile relay and fourth in the district Cross Country meet. At the Lima meet Don Oswalt placed twelfth out of one hundred and fifty boys in one event.

This year the Cross Country team was composed principally of underclassmen which will provide strength for next year's team.

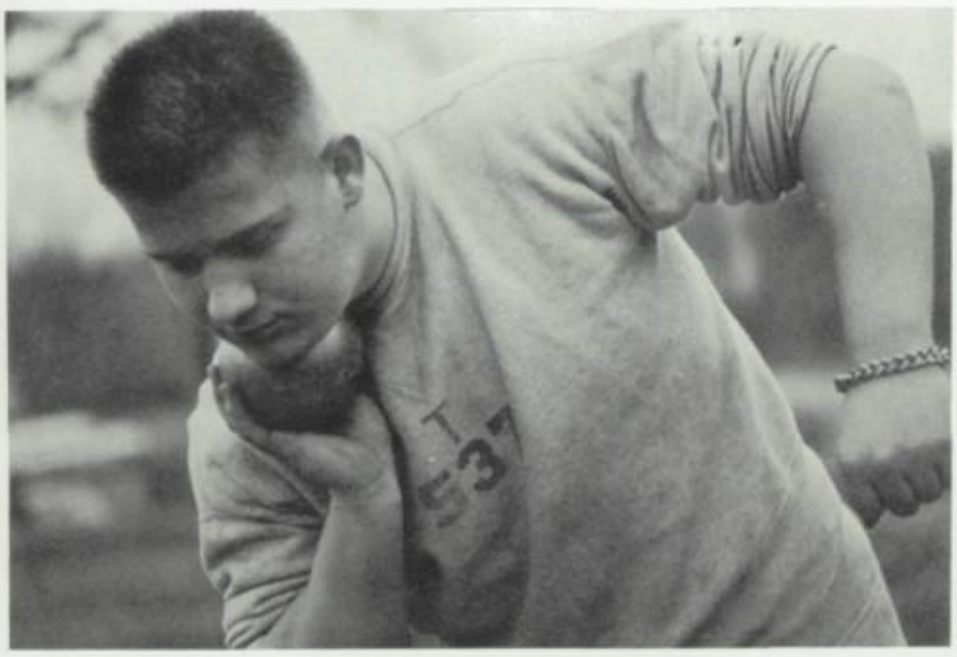
The leading pole vaulter for the track team was Bill Mitchell. His best effort this year has been a vault of 12 feet and 3 inches.



Bill Jividen demonstrates the technique which is needed to put the shot. In high school the twelve pound shot is usually thrown between 40 and 50 feet.

QUEEN - SIZE PREPARATIONS

The selection of the 1962 Track Queen was made by the student body. Charlene Ashbaugh was chosen to reign as the "Image of Spring" for the 1962 Mansfield Relays. She and her court, Jayne Long, Linda Ludwig, Roberta Ralston, and Gaye Wright, found that they had many plans to be made before the festivities began.

One of the more unusual clubs around M.H.S. was the Radio Club. Anyone who was interested in amateur radio could join and receive training for the Federal Communications Commission license.

BUSINESSMEN OF TOMORROW

Hmm...free samples.
I like this booth the best.

Chaos, happy chaos, is found in all the rooms at the Junior Achievement building. Junior Achievement offers valuable and practical pre-business experiences to high school students who organize and operate their own small-scale businesses. Annually Junior Achievement sponsors an Open House, Trade Fair, and a Future Unlimited Banquet for the presentation of awards. This year Junior Achievement welcomed a new head advisor, Mr. Ahart.

Cooperation plus.

The next time, you work and I'll supervise!

J. A. welcomes new executive, Mr. John Ahart.

PEP CLUB

P-E-P spells pep-pep-pep--and that is exactly what Mansfield's Senior High Pep Club has had this year. They helped to support the athletic teams by sponsoring pep assemblies, reserving sections at the games, and sending buses to the out-of-town games. No one can forget the sale of shakers and booster ribbons which also helped to support the various teams.

Pep Club ran smoothly under the direction of Chuck Oberlin, president; Jim Million, vice-president; Sue Yuncker, treasurer; and Chris Clark, secretary.

SHARING WITH OTHERS

Sharing the meeting with Shunji Mano.

Sold, for thirty-seven cents!

Meeting every Monday night, the Senior Y-Teens worked for their last year to accomplish the Y-Teen goals. Many projects were on this year's agenda, including sponsoring a "Mr. Irresistible" dance, coloring Easter eggs for rest homes, and selling hot chocolate at the Hi-Y Christmas tree lot.

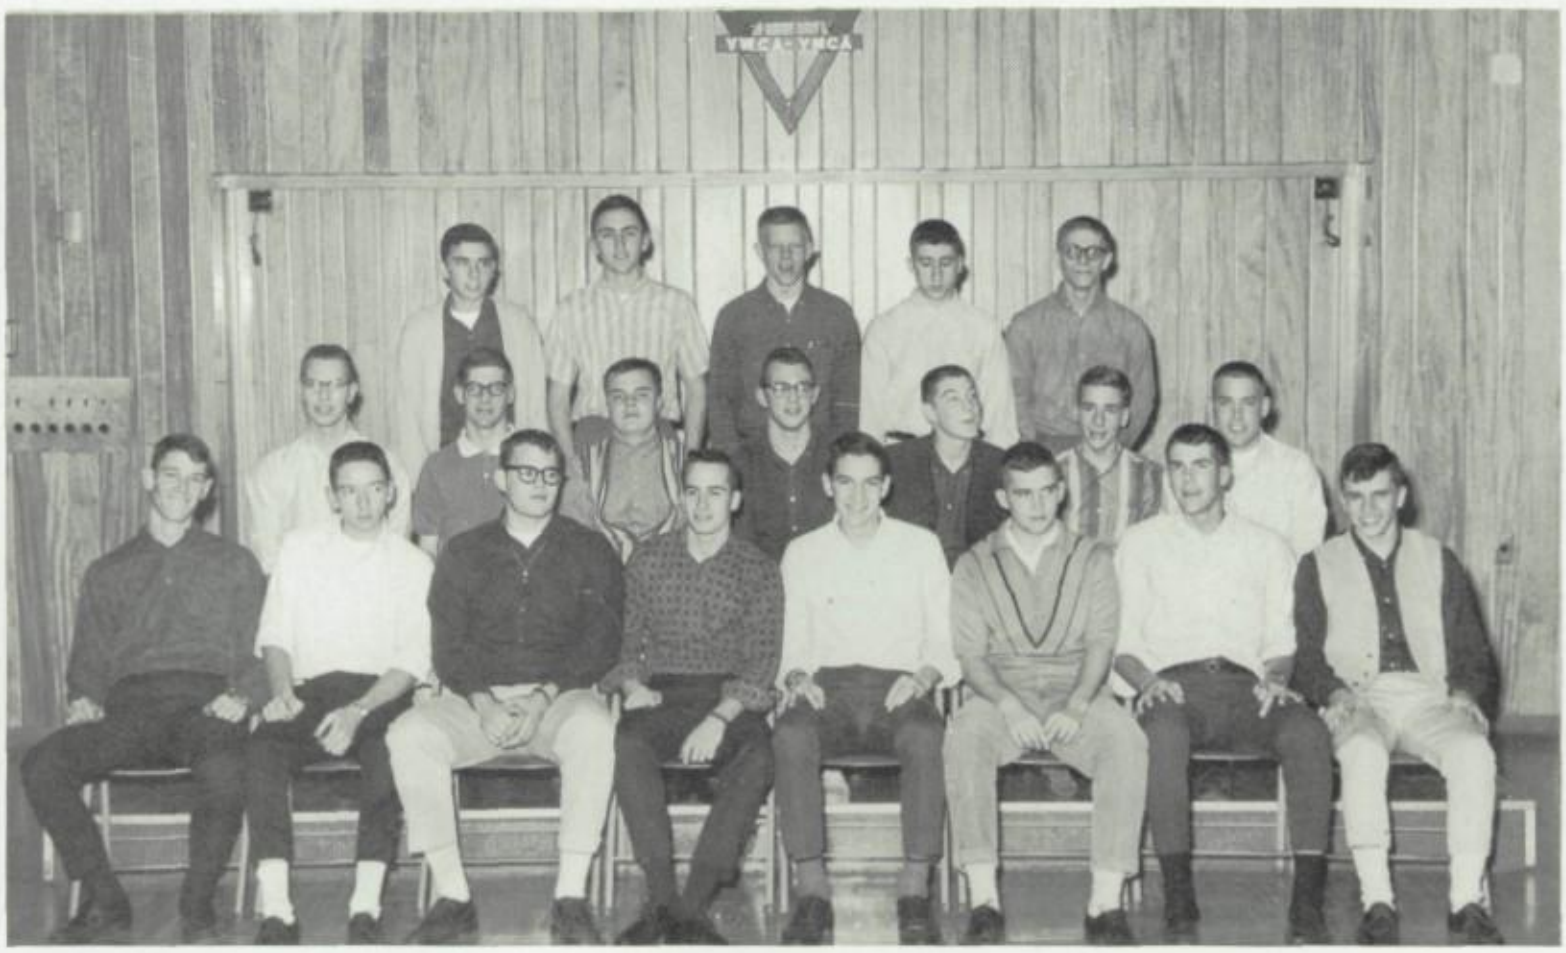
Officers were Carole Weaver, president; Gladys Knoerr, vice-president; Judy McBride, treasurer; and Patsy Thompson, secretary.

TREE SALE LAUNCHES HI-Y TRIP

Lying in wait...

In their last year of working together, the Senior Hi-Y members demonstrated their ability to work hard toward a common goal--the trip to Washington, D. C. during spring vacation. A Christmas tree sale and a dance topped off their numerous projects for the school and community. Serving as officers were Chuck Oberlin, president; Bill Locke, vice-president; Jim Schroeder, secretary; and Jim Hartman, treasurer.

Twenty-two dollars for that?!?



ILLUSTRATING Y-TEEN SPIRIT

Making the season bright.

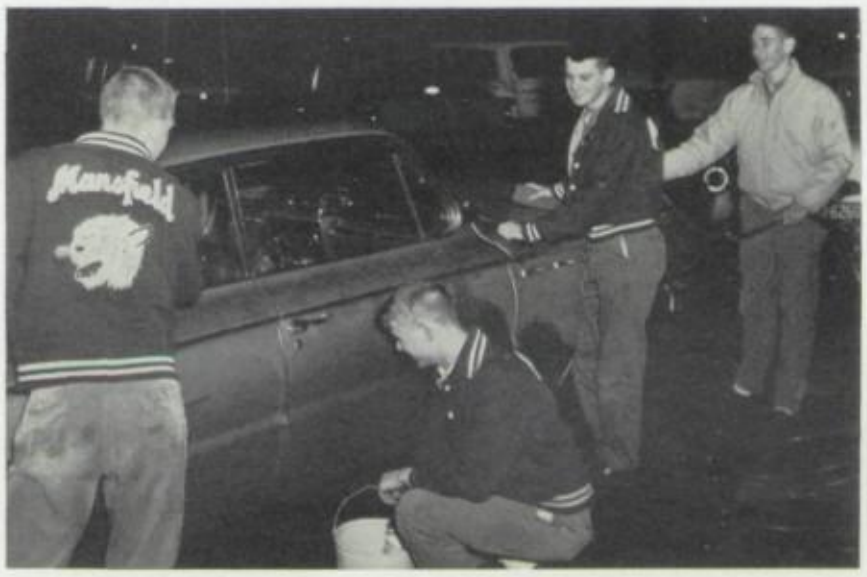
One of the largest Y-Teen clubs this year was the Junior Y-Teens. The Y-Teen purpose was reflected in all their service projects, including entertaining hospital patients, caroling at rest homes, and sending reading material to hospital patients.

Leading the club were Sue Stocker, Diane Dewald, Candy Richeson, Liz May, and Sue Clark.

JR. HI-Y DONATES TO OTHERS

This year the Junior Hi-Y continued to follow its goal to clean, Christian living. Speakers on college entrance, social relations, and athletics helped to attempt the reaching of this goal. A car wash, spaghetti dinner, and a dance rounded out the year. Two boys were chosen as delegates to Youth in Government in April.

Presiding over the club were Bob Evans, President; Bob Russell, Vice-President; Bill Mitchell, Secretary; Dave Vereeke, Treasurer; and Dick Wert, Chaplain.



Who turned off the water?

Let's see, what's next on the agenda?

RELIGION, AN IMPORTANT PHASE

Reflecting spiritual moments...

This year the Y-gym was filled with the voices of the Sophomore Y-Teens every Monday night. Filling Christmas baskets and sponsoring a style show were two of their most memorable activities.

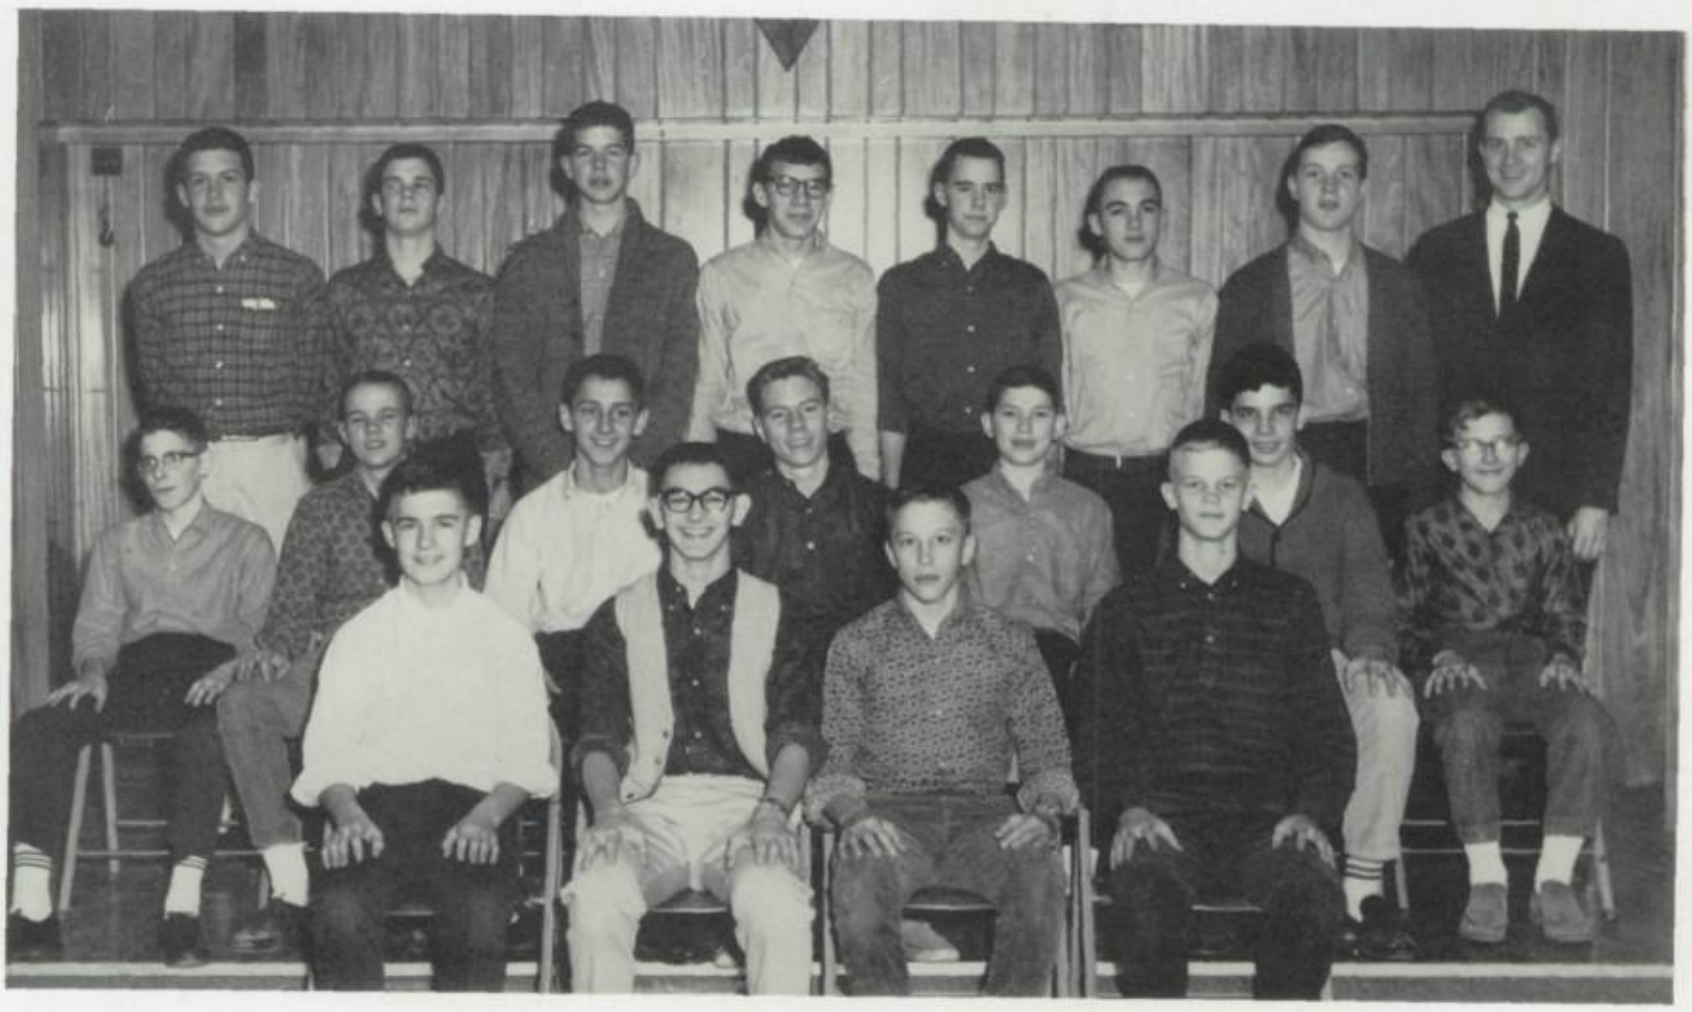
Officers were Peg Adams, Rocky Mertler, Vicki Zartman, Barb Marks, and Jennifer Frizzell.

SOPHS REFLECT TRUE HI-Y SPIRIT

The Sophomore Hi-Y reflects the true spirit of character building and service. This year they made a study of religion with talks by various religious leaders. Also, they organized recreational activities as a part of their plan to develop their spirit, mind, and body. The members assisted in the Foster Parents Plan and a cooky sale which sparked their activities. Those serving as officers were: Jim Berry, President; Bill Campbell, Vice-president; Jerry Hoffer, Secretary; and Dick Whitney, Treasurer.

To get ahead in the world, you have to go up!

We only have four boxes left. Who wants them?



ROTARIANS LUNCH WITH LEADERS

Each September a number of outstanding boys are chosen by the faculty to represent the various organizations and activities in the school. These boys, all with high grades, go with Mr. Glass to the Leland Hotel every Tuesday to eat and talk with the leaders of the business and professional worlds of Mansfield. This also gives the men of the city a chance to find out about the activities in the school.

"LEADERS OF QUALITY"

Senior Spotlights

The setting: Mansfield Senior High School
The time: June 8, 1962 - Graduation Day
The plot: Spotlighted events of our senior year are symbolized in a stage production concluding with the finale as graduation.

Streaking across the stage, the light from the cameras swallows our images and transmits them into our senior pictures. The programs have been distributed announcing the commencement of the Senior Class of 1962. Our make-up has been applied. First came the basic foundation consisting of our studies, homework, and special projects. Knowledge is the key to success. The Class of 1962 has at least attained the lock to success, and our key will come with experience. Not to be excluded from the basic make-up are the numerous senior activities. Varsity Varieties and the Class Play have prevented our class from being forgotten in the whirl of movement. Next the powder of society is applied. Representing this enrichment is our prom, "Polynesian Paradise." This night of nights will often be reflected in our memories, fading gradually, but never becoming too dim for us to see. Eye-liner is applied to fence in our acres of remembrances; eye-shadow, to silhouette our summits of hope. Rouge signifies the unlimited school spirit exhibited by our senior class. As the glare of graduation penetrates our thoughts and feelings, we consider the brightness of the future. Now we have fulfilled our roles--the end has come. In our red and white gowns of confidence, we advance to the platform on Arlin Field to receive our diplomas, making our final bow to the theater of learning,

As the clock ticked out the final hour, another school day was drawing to a close. Outside, the rows of ready cars awaited their eager drivers and passengers. Inside, the doors that opened your way to classes and activities were closed in temporary rest.

The halls emptied: Some left with the usual burst of three o'clock enthusiasm, for they were completing just another school day. Others departed more thoughtfully, for they were reflecting on a concluded high school career.

WE WISH TO THANK . . .

We have tried to present to you a memory of your school year at Mansfield Senior High School. The Manhigan is the product of many people's working efficiently together. We would first like to thank Mr. Hailey for his time, effort, and much-appreciated help. The staff also deserves much credit for their long hours of work and worry resulting in a job well done.

Gratitude is extended to the following business firms, without whose help the 1962 Manhigan could not have been published:
